SPEAKER PROFILE

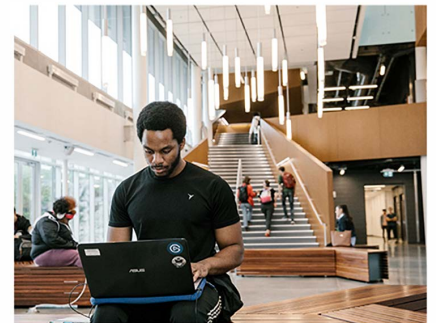

Bradley A. Lukanic

AIA, LEED AP

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, CANNONDESIGN

With a never-ending drive and passion for design and built experiences, Brad embraces situational change disrupters that transform the industry's future – and he's leading CannonDesign's charge to get there.

As CEO, Brad seeks partners that are curious to accelerate, command and propel design's influences on environments with goals resolving cross-disciplinary thinking and engagement. He leads CannonDesign with a sincere approach of listening to employee and client challenges to guide a discovery of "what if" opportunities, instead of progressing in a silo. Parallel to his practical design experience, Brad's thought leadership is shared within and beyond architecture audiences.
